Cookies used on this site

You must have cookies enabled to use this website. If you object to the use of cookies and you have an account on this website, please contact us to remove your account and personal information.

Cookies are small text files that are stored in your browser and these allow us to keep track of things. We use only cookies that are necessary for you to have an enjoyable experience when visiting our site.

We have three main uses for cookies on this site, and if you disable these, then this site will not work for you.

Authentication Cookies are used to tell us that you have logged in and are able to access your private areas on this site. Without this cookie, you would have to log in to visit each and every private page on the site!

Session-State and Shopping Cart Cookies that are used to remember the items in your shopping cart between visits to this site, and pages within.

Use of External Analytics Tools: We use analytics tools (e.g., Google Analytics) to collect data about the use of the Website and Service. Analytics tools collect data such as how often users visit the Website or Services, what pages they visit, when they do so, and what website they directly came from to the Website or Service. We use the data we get from these tools to maintain and improve the Website and Service.

Other cookies: We do not currently employ any other kinds of cookie (either first-party or third-party) on this site. However, some of the software code modules used in the construction of this site, as well as the platform hosting this site, may employ cookies for their internal use, such as session-state and form-security management as well as the credit card payment provider (pinpayments.com). These cookies are considered essential for the smooth running of this site.
